Neachesna Village After-school Reading Program

Neachesna Village Super Readers is a program for Tribal youth in grades 1-5 in Lincoln City who are below grade level in reading. Our focus is to help students who have fallen behind in reading reach grade level.

The program runs Monday-Friday, 4-6 p.m. If there is a weekday off from school, we generally stay open from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. The program provides a snack daily for participating students. Kids can ride the school bus from North Lincoln schools, but parents must pick up their children from the site by 6 p.m.

Super Readers focuses on a three-step approach: Silent Reading, Read Aloud by an adult reader and One-on-One reading interventions with our site tutor. Students receive an individualized reading plan created just for them based on an initial assessment by our reading specialist. Quarterly assessments continue to guide our students to success.

Though reading is a focus, we also play games, have fun and engaging activities, and STEM activities. This is an opportunity for your child to take part in small-group learning combined with one-on-one attention in their areas of struggle.

We also have quarterly Family Nights that allow family members to join in on the fun and celebrate their Super Reader's individual reading growth!

To enroll your child at the Neachesna Village site in Lincoln City, call our site coordinator, Wendy, at 541-921-4698.
